WOMAN'S INTUITION Glee Club Concert LED TO POISON PLOT

Mysterious "K. Adams," Whose Telegram Put Dr. Waite in Toils, Found.

ent.

Back of the telegram lies a story of an overwhelming suspicion, born of intuition and the circumstances surrounding the deaths of John E. Peck and his wife, Hannah Peck, in the home of their son-in-law, Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, on Riverside Drive.

A knowledge of Dr. Waite's character and a remembrance of a remark he had dropped about coming into early possession of the Peck millions were other factors.

Before the marriage of the handsome factors.

Before the marriage of the handsome young dentist to Clara Peck, this person—the district attorney's office will not deny it is a woman—lived at Grand Rapids. When the Waites came to New York after their honeymoon the friend of Mrs. Waite visited them in their honeymones.

She—assuming it was a woman—had no liking for Dr. Waite before the marriage. The visit to the house increased this dislike, for she found Dr. Waite not too conscientious regarding his

In the course of a conversation she had with the young dentist, he said:
"Soon I will be spending the Peck millions." Within a week or so after this remark Mrs. Peck died. She had been seen a short time before by Mrs. Waite's friend, and seemed to be on Waite's friend, and seemed to be on the road to recovery.

Exactly six weeks afterward, almost at the same hour that Mrs. Peck had died, her husband followed her. It was not until late that day that the death was learned by the woman. She was struck at the time by the remarkable scientification.

struck at the time by the remarkable coincidence.

Talking with the relatives, she learned that Peck, too, seemed sufficiently strong before his sudden death to survive his illness. Also, she learned of Dr. Waite's insistence that the body should be cremated. She learned it was to be shipped that night to Grand Rapids, the Peck home.

The more she thought of the circumstances the more she felt impelled to the belief that Peck at least had been a victim of foul play. Realizing that she would have to act hastily, she rushed to the Grand Central station at 8 o'clock in the morning, when the body to the telegram.

Despite her suspicions, the sender feared she would get into trouble if it proved there had not been murder. She, therefore, signed a fictitious name to the telegram.

It was this telegram that served as the wedge opening up the astonishing triple conspiracy.

The district attorney announced to-day he had discovered the $1,200 missing from the $9,000 bribe of Waite to Eugene Oliver Kane, the embalmer. He refused to go into details.

report of Building Inspector Morris Hacker.

The permits included 124 brick dwellings, $400,100; five brick apartments, $750,000; nine tile dwellings, $46,500; 11 brick repairs, $75,621; thirty-seven frame dwellings, $127,250, and twenty-eight frame repairs, $7,703.

VOLUNTEER DRESSING WORKERS ARE ASKED

National Civic Federation Committee Sends Out Appeal.

The District of Columbia section of the Surgical Dressings Committee. woman's department, National Civic Federation, through Mrs. Archibald Hopkins today sent out an appeal for more volunteer workers. These workers are requested to report to the work room at 1623 H street from 10 to 1 room at 1623 o'clock daily.

There the work of making dressings is progressing, and more than 10,000 dress-ing have been sent, since January 1, to "The committee wishes to thank those who have so generously contributed to this cause." Mrs. Hopkins states, "and to ask if there are not more volunteer workers who will come to the work room, which is open from 16 to 1 o'clock daily. Especially is it urged of the National Civic Wederstion members the tional Civic Federation members that they offer their services as the call for dressings is more urgent than ever."

Rather Than Lose Dog She Keeps Husband

NEW YORK, April 4 .- Mrs. Mary C. Cook was willing and eager to part with one husband, one pie knife, one cheese one husband, one pie knife, one cheese scoop, twelve teaspoons, and other simsar articles named in her tentative separation agreement, but when to this list of valuables was added the name of "Little Miss Midget," her dog, she balked right there.

Rather than give up her pet, she is determined to remain Mr. Cook's legal wife. Her spouse, on the other hand, became wrathful yesterday when she failed to appear at her lawyer's to sign the separation deeds, and brought suit against his wife demanding $5.00 damages.

For the sake of "Little Miss Midget."
Mrs. Cook scorned the house and two lots at Babylon, the automobile, the fire insurance policies, and all the bric-abrac, pictures and furnishings relinquished conditionally to her by her husband—and she still refuses to sign the agreement which will take the dog from her.

To Grow Wild Flowers Is This Society's Object

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 4.-OKLAHOMA CITY, Okia., April 4.—
To propagate wild flowers in the public parks of Oklahoma is the object of a civic society that has been incorporated in this State, to be known as the Wild Flower Association of Oklahoma.

This association will attempt to set aside a corner of every park in the State for the encouragement of native wild flowers to the end that none of the varieties shall become extinct. It will varieties shall become extinct. It will also attempt to secure co-operation from the schools, to the end that all school children may become interested in wild flowers and help to protect them.

Through the hospitality of the College

Women's Club, of this city, Washington was privileged yesterday afternoon to hear the work of eight of her representative composers, whose composi NEW YORK, April 4.—The sender of the mysterious "K. Adams" telegram, the "tip" which exposed the Peck poison murders, has been found.

Admission of its authorship was made to John T. Dooling and Francis X. Mancuso, assistant district attorneys, by a person brought into their office by Detective John Cunniff. The identity of the person is kept secret for the presting the made up a process of the College of Wooster, Ohio, and by the Hon. Wendell Phillips Stafford, who read three original lyrics that were later given in song form as composed by A. Tregina. The Glee Club were delightful enterial enteria tions made up a program of music was an inimitable bit of comedy. They proved themselves co-eds in the "Wooster Love Seng." inviting college members in the audience to join them, to which several women responded.

Of our composers, Arthur Tregina was most largely represented, with Robert Cary Stearns holding second place. Mr. Tregina's works included a "Nocturne" for plano, played by Miss Ethel Neff: the three songs sung by Mrs. Price, and an "Orchestral Sulte." transcribed for plano and given most effectively by Miss Neff, who put true atmosphere into the "Lamente Persane." with its local color.

PIRATE' HODSON WILL HAVE MIND TESTED

Captor of Steamer Matoppo Sent to Psychopathic Ward.

NEW YORK, April 4.- "Pirate" Clarence Reginald Hodson, alias Ernest Schiller, who seized the British freighter Matoppo at sea with all the dash of an old-time buccaneer, was sent to the psychopathic ward at Bellevue Hospital by Magistrate Koenig of the Jefferson Market court.

He will be under observation for ten days, because the authorities are almost convinced his "German plots"

Permits Issued Involve Expenditure of Million and Half Dollars.

Five hundred and eighteen building permits involving an expenditure of March, according to the monthly report of Building Inspector Moris Hacker.

Almost convinced his "German plots" are mere vaporings.
Hodson's two "accomplices," Otto Millider and George Haller, in the scheme to blow up the Pannonia of the Cunard line, are held on short affidavits pending the outcome of Hodson's stay in Bellevue.

A third associate of Hodson probably will be arrested today, and John C. Howard, of the Department of Justice, has gone to Salem, Mass, to interview Mrs. Rose Gaboriault, alleged financier of Hodson's schemes.

Judge H. B. Howe, of the United States District Court, set April 17 for the trial of Lieut. Robert Fay, Walter Schloz, and Paul Daeche, indicted for conspiring to destroy munitions ships of the allies.
